MAYOR'S PROCLAMATION.

Pursuant to the proclamation of the President of the United States, designating Thursday, September 19th, as a day set apart to which to hold memorial services commemorative of the great and untimely death of our much-loved President, William McKinley, at the hands of a lawless murderer, and in order that the law-abiding and God-fearing people of the city of Mayville recognize the occasion by the most appropriate and fitting tributes to the memory of a great and good patriot, high-souled man and Christian statesman.

New, therefore, I, W. E. Stallcup, Mayor of the city of Mayville, Ky., in accordance with the above proclamation, and in order that the people of this city and all those who are in and for said city, and ask that all manner of business be suspended at that time and that our citizens as a whole shall meet and assemble together at a place to be designated later by a notice in the daily papers, and then and there unite in displaying the great exaltation which has befallen us as a nation and realize their devotion to the high and mighty ruler of the universe in petitions for the safety, welfare, peace and happiness of our beloved country.

Given under my hand and the seal of the city of Mayville, Ky., this 17th day of September, 1901.

W. E. STALLCUP, Mayor.

Charlton, five-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Nesbitt, is quite ill.

The Pomeroy, (O.), Leader has this compliment to a Mayville citizen: "Mr. M. B. Clark is visiting his parents, called home by his father's illness. Mr. Clark informs us he has been nominated by the Third Ward citizens of his adopted home for Councilman. We applaud the selection and say to people of Mayville: Elect him and they'll have a fine gentleman and conscientious official to serve them. We know him."

SLEPT ON THE TRACK.

Mr. James Brown Makes His Bed
on the C. and O. Trestle.

James Brown, aged about 22, had a rude awakening yesterday about noon. He had pitched his tent on the C. and O. Trestle near Wormald's Elevator and lay down to sweet dreams of peace. The yard engine came along, pushing one car and pulling another, when the car disturbed his slumber. He was knocked off the trestle, falling some dozen feet, and when Dr. Samuel examined him he found a scalp wound, a lacerated leg and several other contusions, none being dangerous. He was conveyed to his home in the East End, and is now strongly of the opinion that a railway track makes an unsatisfactory bed.

Comfort and Health

Demand as imperative the daily bath and nothing conduces to the enjoyment so thoroughly as a Turkish Bath Towel, the right kind, generous in proportion, unbleached, absorbent as a sponge, just rough enough to insure proper circulation. Those who know anything about the good points of a towel say we have one of the very best values. You'll say so, too. Not the price but the quality of the towel is its merit. 1 1/4 yards long, 26 inches wide. 25c, usually 35c.

Enough proof they're cheaper here than elsewhere when we've sold over 1,200 yards in two months. Plain colors, corded stripes and checks, pretty Louisiana effects, polka dots and plenty of white. No wonder they sell. People tell us the same quality sells elsewhere for 35c.

TABLE LINENS!

No, no; we did not buy all the linens in the New York market, for we only bought the cream of the best. Such a grand showing of table linens has never before been made in Mayville. Ireland and Scotland are the homes of linens across the water, but the Bee Hive is the linen headquarters of Kentucky.

TOWELS—Our Towels are aristocrats—none better made. Whether you buy our 5c cotton towels or our 88c linen towels you will get the best value that can possibly be made for the money.

SHEET AND PILLOW CASE SETS—Made of the best muslin and hemstitched. Beautiful is too mild an adjective to describe them. $2.49 to $3.98 per set.

ALBATROSS FLANNELS—That's the name of a new line of Flannellets we have just received. The patterns are exceptionally pretty and the qualities are fine. They are 34 inches wide, and we say 19c yard instead of 25c. We have a few Persian patterns a little narrower at 17c yard.

F C GINGHAMS—We consider ourselves fortunate in being able to secure some of these Gingham. They are very scarce. 9 1/2c a yard. They make rather pretty shirts and shirtwaists.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in dose from ten drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address: F. J. ASTHMA CAN BE CURED.

A Noted Physician Will Prove This to Sufferers in Maysville Thursday.

The astonishing statement that Asthma can be cured, coming from so well known authority as Dr. Rudolph Schiffmann, has been of interest to asthma sufferers. The experience of most Asthmatics has been that little if any relief has been afforded them by the methods heretofore employed, and in fact, the disease has up to now been regarded as incurable. This noted physician has, however, after a life-long study of Asthma and kindred diseases, discovered a remedy which not only instantly relieves the severest cases of Asthma, Hay Fever and Bronchitis, but has actually cured thousands whose cases had been pronounced incurable. So complete is Dr. Schiffmann's confidence in his remedy that he requests this paper to announce that all day next Thursday, September 19th, he offers a liberal sample box of "Schiffmann's Asthma Cure" free of charge to all persons applying at Thos. J. Cheney's Drugstore, corner Second and Sutton streets.

Dr. Schiffmann believes that an actual test will be the most convincing and fact the only way to overcome the natural prejudice of thousands of Asthmatics who have heretofore sought relief in vain. Persons living out of town will receive a package free by writing direct to Dr. H. Schiffmann, 720 Jackson street, St. Paul, Minn., before September 21st and inclosing a 2-cent stamp.

An Open Letter.

We desire to say that our business since January 1st has passed the mark anticipated. We wish to be frank; therefore we are not attempting to talk to business people and put it in the form of a polished essay. The advantage of having merchandise different from your competitors is apparent, provided that the retailer is known to be reliable. Does not a good deal of advertising appear to you as though the advertisers were indulging too freely in fine words? Most of them seem to say something that means nothing. Names are listed for goods that have no bearing whatever to the materials; turned and twisted until they are no longer relevant, all of which is done to tone the product, because the product hasn't enough of it. Fine feathers make fine birds, but fine words do not make fine goods. We are strong believers in advertising because it is a good thing, but advertising doesn't pay unless constructed on a proper basis, and that is to plainly tell people what you have to sell, and sell it as low as is consistent with legitimate business methods.

Our spring importation of Dress Goods, White Goods, Carpets, Mattings and Housekeeping Goods generally is complete. Come and learn prices, which will be found to be as cheap as the cheapest, quality considered. Respectfully,
GEORGE COX & SON.
